The Honorable Steven T. Mnuchin Secretary Department of the Treasury 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Washington, D.C. 20220

Dear Secretary Mnuchin,

As you are aware, the Committee on Ways and Means ("Committee") has legislative and oversight jurisdiction over the Department of the Treasury ("Treasury"), the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"), and the Federal tax laws and is currently investigating the mandatory examination of Presidents' and Vice-Presidents' income tax returns outlined in the Internal Revenue Manual ("mandatory audit program").

On July 29, 2019, the Committee received an unsolicited communication from a Federal employee setting forth credible allegations of "evidence of possible misconduct"—specifically, potential "inappropriate efforts to influence" the mandatory audit program. This is a grave charge that appreciably heightens the Committee's concerns about the absence of appropriate safeguards as part of the mandatory audit program and whether statutory codification of such program or other remedial, legislative measures are warranted.

The Committee has raised these concerns repeatedly, both in prior correspondence as well as at the June 10 briefing with staff from both Treasury and the IRS. Commissioner Rettig, in his May 17, 2019 letter, responded that the "concern that IRS employees could be subject to undue influence when conducting mandatory audits of a President's tax returns" is "unfounded." The allegations received by the Committee cast doubt on this statement and underscore the pressing need for complete and meaningful oversight of the mandatory audit program.

In light of the serious and urgent concerns raised by this new information, I have requested, under separate cover, a rolling production of certain documents and communications of specified Treasury and IRS employees, with an initial production due August 13, 2019. Thank you, in advance, for your prompt attention to this matter.

The Honorable Richard E. Neal, Chairman
